

Kids in child labor time his hard

Utan Miratach lambordi ~~is~~ is my name the matrn time from now ~~is~~ is not the same child labor from our time is not a game they got us kids working for low pay even though we work so hard we can't rest for a day 12 hours of work and are family has nothin all of a sudden every thing started going wrong thats why I'm rapping this song we got crust tees, ripped clothes, got us working in rows at a factory practically ABC's and 123's we can't learn its only five cents we earn every hour lucky god gives us the power the only food we got is sour and I'm willing to learn but there is no school so there is nothing I can do I'm consider a fool and look like a fool because I'm skinning not enough food at home I got too eat from the bone So everyone that's impoverished gotta do child labor please do me a favor and tell im child labor is slavery all we need is braverg we can handle it, it might take a bit

January 3, 1892

Diary entry #1.

My name is Ultan Macneartach Lombardi. I am from Dun Laoghaire, Ireland. I am twelve years old. My mother's name is Tara Lombardi. My father is Tadhg Lombardi. I have two sisters and one brother. We came to America because we wanted a better life.

My brother Owen who is 11 and my mother were forced to stay on Ellis Island due to some sickness. They say if they don't get better in the next two weeks they'll have to go back to Dun Laoghaire. So ~~we~~ My father and my sisters Fina and Enya will have to go to America without them. We got to New York City and we lived inside a tenement in the slums. The tenements were very nasty, dirty, and very crowded. There was also a man saying that me and my sister might have to work for money to help our parents ~~pay~~ pay rent and buy food. My ~~mom~~ ^{mom} called my dad and told ~~him~~ that she Cannot come to America because of a sickness she has, but my brother Owen is coming to live with us because he has gotten rid of the cold. My mom say the only way she can live with us is by getting rid of the sickness while she is in Ireland then go back to Ellis Island.

ANSWERED AND FILED 2/12/2013 9:50 AM

APR 2 2013 10:10 AM 2013-000703 9/50

RECORDED AND INDEXED 10:10 AM 2013

APR 2 2013 10:10 AM 2013-000703 9/50

RECORDED AND INDEXED 10:10 AM 2013

APR 2 2013 10:10 AM 2013-000703 9/50

RECORDED AND INDEXED 10:10 AM 2013

APR 2 2013 10:10 AM 2013-000703 9/50

RECORDED AND INDEXED 10:10 AM 2013

APR 2 2013 10:10 AM 2013-000703 9/50

RECORDED AND INDEXED 10:10 AM 2013

APR 2 2013 10:10 AM 2013-000703 9/50

RECORDED AND INDEXED 10:10 AM 2013

APR 2 2013 10:10 AM 2013-000703 9/50

RECORDED AND INDEXED 10:10 AM 2013